

More muscles = less fat!

Written by

DATE_FORMAT_LC2 -

More muscles = less fat!

You should always try to maintain, or increase your muscle mass. It increases the body's capacity to burn energy because muscle tissue has a very high metabolic activity; it burns calories even when muscles are in a resting state. Muscles are our most powerful fat-burning system, especially as they burn most of our calories.